

Accommodation facilities for international students:

International students are offered on-campus accommodation. Recently renovated residence halls offer fully-equipped 2-share or 3-share ensuite study-bedrooms. The rooms are self-contained having a kitchen and a bathroom. Single study-bedrooms are not available. The University International Department may assist in finding suitable host families for homestay.

Maintenance costs per academic year:

Accommodation: living on campus in the University residence halls cost appr. $10-25 US per month (if you are a student); renting on-campus accommodation for teaching/research staff is more expensive. Off-campus accommodation rental prices may vary from $240 to 560 US, depending on the level of comfort (the city centre not included). Living costs per month are about $240 US.
